THE RAYMOND LION LIONS CODE OF ETHICS

6 Always to bear in mind my obligations as a citizen to my nation, my state and my community, and to give them my unswerving loyalty in deed, work and thought. To give them freely of my time, labor and means.

In a way this portion of the Lions Code of Ethics is the most important of all pledges a Lion makes, for upon it depends his ability to carry out the other pledges.

To every Lion his country stands as the sum of human attainment in the science of government. On it are based all his freedom, his security in possession of the fruits of his labor, his safety from foreign encroachment, his peaceful life with his family. Whatever the land to which he owes fealty, Lionism requires that a Lion give the fullest and most unswerving allegiance. The Lion believes with all his heart that his government is the best yet devised. He feels that if it were destroyed, all his rights, all his liberties, all his safety—civilization itself—would be taken away.

This is a fitting time for every Lion to consider in all seriousness the privileges of citizenship. Let him consider what would become of his liberties, his rights, his security, his property, his equal right with every other citizen to shape his life as it may please him, and to win honors or riches or fame or whatever appeals to him—let him think what would be come of all these if his government were overthrown, either by an enemy without or by false friends within.

The Constitution of the United States, the Magna Carta of Great Britain, were no accidents. They were the fruits of the labors of many years spent in toil and suffering and experiment and slow learning. On them power which succeeds in overturning our liberties are founded, and the them, overturns at the same time the hope of mankind.

Tom Holmes Wins Basketball Trophy In Ontario

Ottawa Citizen—Tommy Holmes, center player for Mormon Elders has been awarded the Bert Marshall Memorial Trophy for the season 1951-52. The announcement was made by the trophy trustees, D. P. Kirby, Radford Crawley and Lea McCaffrey. Holmes becomes the 18 winner of the trophy which was awarded in 1931.

The trophy is given to the out-standing player in the City Basketball League who combines playing ability and sportsmanship. The award is made by the three trophy trustees and is based upon the results of ballots marked by team coaches, referees and league officials. The ballot contains the names of two players from each team in the league who have been chosen by their teammates. The trophy was donated to the league by Arthur Ash in memory of his friend, Bert Marshall, who died in 1930 while at the peak of his basketball playing career.

The Mormon Elders, with Holmes playing the starring role, are at present tied with Brooks Grade for the senior basketball championship.

Mrs. Gardener To Be Delegate At W. I. Convention

The Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Will Lamb with twenty members and three visitors present. The president Mrs. Norma Meldrum presided and the meeting commenced by singing O Canada. Roll Call was answered by giving a Household Cleaning Hint.

The Creed was led by Mrs. Christen sen after which the Minutes were read and accepted.

The Women's Institute Convention is to be held in Lethbridge on April 3rd and 4th and Mrs. Gardener was appointed as delegate. The Constituency Convention will be held in Raymond on June 20th.

Mrs. Anna Adams gave a very interesting Paper on Agriculture and Canadian Industries.

The next meeting will be held April 18th as the regular day would be Good Friday.

After singing When Irish Eyes Are Smiling the meeting adjourned.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostesses, Mrs. C. W. Lamb, Mrs. C. Rolston and Mrs. J. Allen.

Mrs. Jim Bridge and Mrs. Joe Keel er were hostesses at a turkey dinner Wednesday evening honoring their father Heber Allan on his birthday. The St. Patricks Day theme was carried out in the table decorations.

The remainder of the evening was spent playing Rook with prizes going to Mrs. Brewerton and Paul Redd.

Red Cross Has Collected $692.50 Toward Goal Of $1750

After two weeks of canvassing in Raymond and district, Canadian Red Cross Campaign Chairman Mrs. Frank Hall announced today that a total of $692.50 of the $1750.00 quota has been reached.

"We are meeting with the usual cooperative response" Mrs. Hall said, "and we feel sure that our quota will soon be met."

This year, Red Cross canvassers are emphasizing Alberta Division's key project, the newly-occupied million and a quarter dollar Alberta Red Cross Crippled Children's Hospital. The new building, final word in modern hospitals, is for the medical treatment of children whose parents cannot afford prolonged orthopaedic care. Patients are admitted from all over Alberta, the Peace River Block and the North West Territories.

But while Red Cross work is done at home, the Society has international obligations as well. For example, the Canadian Society's medical-social-welfare team was the first to be sent to Korea to work under the United Nations with civilian refugees. Within the past few weeks, Canadian Red Cross has received permission to have special workers attending Canadian servicemen in Japan and Korea and right now, Alberta women are sewing garments for refugee civilian Koreans who look for outside aid to ease their sufferings.

The Friday Night Club met at the home of Mrs. Annie Fawns last week with Mrs. Nita Mendenhall assistant hostess.

"Boys From Sharon" was the name of the book reviewed by Mrs. Geneva Larson, which was enjoyed by all. The author was Louise Field Cooper.

A very delicious lunch was served at the close of the evening.

Small Crowd Found Out 'What Happened To Jones'

Many long hours of rehearsing was climaxed Friday evening in the Stake House when the United Church Young People presented a humorous play, 'What Happened To Jones' to a small but appreciative audience.

This was a play of mistaken identity, taking place in the year 1910.

Jones, a travelling salesman, in an effort to evade the police, donned the clothes of Antony Goodley, D. D., the Bishop of Ballarat, from Australia, who was coming to visit his brother Ebenezer Goodley. And then the fun began! The humor was helped along by William Bigbee, an escaped inmate of an insane asylum, and a Swedish maid named Helma, while love interest was provided by Sissie, Marjory and Elvira Starlight and Richard Heatherley.

THE RAYMOND LION

With this belief strong in his soul the Lion means every word he says and more, when he pledges himself always to bear in mind his obligations as a citizen. That pledge means more than the paying of taxes and refraining from committing a crime. It means the active and vigorous life of a man who loves and believes in his country, who rebukes every slur or attack on the government, who teaches loyalty and patriotism and appreciation of the blessings of free dom to the youth, the citizens of to-morrow.

That is the power in Lionism which is making it such a force for good in every community where a Lion Club is established.

Johnny had seen his mother measure a yard by holding one end to her nose and the other at arm's length. One day he came running in with a piece of rope.
